

MMA Capital Management Announces Special Meeting

BALTIMORE, Oct. 4, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- On Friday, September 28, 2018, MMA Capital Management, LLC (NASDAQ: MMAC) ("MMA Capital" or "the Company") announced that it will hold a special investor meeting on Tuesday, November 20, 2018, at 1:00 p.m. EDT for shareholders of record as of September 24, 2018. The purpose of the special meeting will be to allow shareholders to vote on whether to convert the Company to a Delaware corporation for legal purposes. Further details can be found in the Definitive Proxy Form 14A as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on Friday, September 28, 2018.

Michael Falcone, MMA Capital's Chief Executive Officer stated, "Consistent with our continued efforts to increase shareholder value, the Board of Directors has determined that it is in the best interest of shareholders to convert from a Delaware limited liability company to a Delaware corporation for legal purposes, which we believe will enhance the value of the Company's stock. The primary reason for the proposed change is to enable certain institutional investors, including funds that track certain market indices, to invest in the Company that are currently prohibited from investing in companies organized as a limited liability company. If the proposal is approved, we anticipate that the Company will be eligible for inclusion in certain indices upon their next reconstitution measurements sometime in 2019, subject to meeting the qualification requirements of any individual index. The proposal will have no impact on the Company's tax treatment as we elected to be taxed as a corporation and eliminated our pass-through of income back in 2013, nor will it impact our governance since we have always had a corporate style of governance. The Company fully supports voting in favor of the proposal and encourages shareholders to vote at their earliest convenience."
